You are cordially invited to:

Breakfast with Tiffany

Thursday 13th August 2009, Sydney, 7:30am

Who's invited?

Graduate Program Managers,
Learning and Development Directors,
HR Directors, Talent Directors.

Why attend?

- ✓ Join friends and colleagues across our industry for a fun and relaxed morning of insight, inspiration and practical tools.
- ✓ Enhance your own professional development as well as your graduate and emerging leader programs.
 - ✓ Win Tiffany's. It's very simple.

WIN a $500 "little blue box" from Tiffany & Co.

Attend any Breakfast with Tiffany event and receive 2 extra chances to WIN a $500 little blue box drawn at the 2009 AAGE Conference in November, courtesy of Development Beyond Learning.

Keynote Speaker

Our keynote speaker is Josh Mackenzie. As a passionate thought leader, speaker, trainer and one of Australia's top young entrepreneurs, Josh has featured in The Age, Sun Herald and Smart Company Magazine and is co-owner of Development Beyond Learning.

Topic

Generation NOW: What the closing generation gap means for your career, your development programs and the ROI you provide to your business.

Josh Mackenzie has just returned from 2 solid months "on the road" speaking around the United States and across Australia, attending industry events and working hands on with employers, graduates and young leaders. He will share up-to-date insight, recent stories and practical tools to apply immediately.

"I encourage you to attend a presentation should you have the opportunity to hear Josh Mackenzie speak."

Chair, Institute of Chartered Accountants

"Josh Mackenzie is a very impressive speaker: thought provoking, poised, present and polished but not over-practiced."

Manager, Randstad

"Josh is a gun. He genuinely loves what he does and prompts fascinating discussion." Senior Manager, National Australia Bank

"Josh's motivation and enthusiasm was infectious ... he is an inspirational speaker." Senior Leader, Aristocrat
